

IZUMO YAYOINOMORI MUSEUM

Meet the Kings of Ancient Izumo

出雲
弥生の森
博物館

Museum
Guide Map

<Access>

by Taxi or Bus from Izumoshi Station [about 10 min.]
Using Ichibeta Railway from Izumoshi Station, get off at Otsumashi Station and walk [about 20 min.]

IZUMO YAYOINOMORI MUSEUM

TEL 0853-25-1841
Address 2760 Ohtsu-cho Izumo-shi Shimane-ken 693-0011
<http://www.city.izumo.shimane.jp/yayoi-nomori>

- Hours 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., last admission at 4:30 p.m.
- Closed/Every Tuesday (if Tuesday is a public holiday, following day) the beginning and the end of the year
- Admission free (except for special exhibitions)

2015.3.20/000

Boards of glass and paper
[Nishidani No.3 Tumulus]

Diorama of the Kunidomi-nakamura Tumulus [displayed at 1/6]

Accessories
[Kami-enya Tsukiyama Tumulus]

Horse-riding harnesses
[Kunidomi-nakamura Tumulus]

tricolored ware
[Shikakurayama Site]

shell bracelets
[Inome Cave]

弥生

restoration of Nishidani
No.2 Tumulus

glass bracelets

real-sized reconstruction of man's burial

Experience the Ancient History of Izumo!

The Kings of Ancient Izumo have been sleeping in large-scale tumuli on Nishidani Hills for about 1800 years.

Yayoiomori Museum, which is adjacent to the Nishidani Tumuli Ruins Park, exhibits many archaeological finds, including the burial goods excavated from Nishidani No.3 Tumulus,detailed dioramas re-creating scenes of regal funeral, and intelligible illustrations.

See, touch, and experience Ancient Izumo!

歴史

diorama of Nishidani No.3 Tumulus on a scale of 1/10

Restored accessories of the King and Queen

Vermilion

Pottery found in the Nishidani No.3 Tumulus

Nishidani Tumuli Ruins Park